MR. HARRISON need not be introduced to the public, being one of the leading jewellers of the city for the last five years. He will be pleased to see you at Harrison's Jewelry Bazaar, 22 Salem avenue.

You can't give a more desirable present than a piece of fine jewelry. You will find it at Harrison's Jewelry Bazar, 22 Salem avenue.

Do you wish to make your wife, sweetheart, brother, sister, father or mother a fine present? You will find watches, diamonds, jewelry, clocks, silverware, optical goods and novelties in abundance at Harrison's Jewelry Bazar, 22 Salem avenue.

Do you need a pair of glasses, in gold, silver or nickel frame? You can have them adjusted to your sight at Harrison's Jewelry Bazaar, Mr. Harrison having had ten years' experience in that line.

The Life of the Flesh is Blood and when the blood is in a healthy state, the man is himself well. Those persons who suffer with syphilis, scrofula, gonorrhea, cancer, old sores, exzema, itch, or any blood or skin disease, will find Dr. David's Iodo-Ferrated Sarsaparilla, a pleasant, safe and effective cure. As a blood purifier it has no equal, and years of careful study and practice has failed to produce a substitute for Dr. David's Iodo-Ferrated Sarsaparilla. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00, at Massie & Martin's, Roanoke, Va.

Dyspepsia Yields
readily to treatment with Dr. David's Cherry and Iron Tonic Bitters. This wonderful tonic cures the food to easily assimilate with the juices of the stomach and readily to digest. Consequently suffers with indigestion, dyspepsia, fermentation of food after eating, gas rising in the throat, sour stomach, heart burn or any discomfort after eating, will find Dr. David's Cherry and Iron Tonic Bitters a speedy relief and a permanent cure. Price, $1.00 per bottle, six bottles for $5.00, at Massie & Martin's, Roanoke, Va.

Items of News Gathered About Town.

James Chalmers, president of the Farmers' National Bank, is at the sanitarium in Dansville, N. Y. Capt.
R. B. Moorman is also there.

Among the recent new arrivals in West Salem is a girl at the home of A.
L. Morgan.

Howard Banks, former Salem correspondent of THE ROANOKE TIMES, is now with the Charlotte, N. C. Observer.
Down on lower Union street, opposite Shartzer's hot houses, J. W. Ferguson, of Back Creek, yesterday established a "shoe shop." This of itself is not remarkable, but when it is stated that the building is 7x14 and 7 feet high, is mounted upon a set of wagon wheels and was brought to its present location by a yoke of steers, then it will be seen that here abides a true genius, who, like Diogenes of old, rolls his dwelling around promiscuously. The shop has two windows and a door, a sleeping bunk and a stove and appears to be comfortable. The material cost $50 and the labor was furnished by the proprietor, who stays in one location as long as it pays, and when trade gets slack he simply latches up his steers, pulls up his stakes and moves somewhere else. A collection of movable shops like this would be invaluable in starting the buds of a booming city.

James Walden, who has been quite ill in Memphis, Tenn., has now entirely recovered.

The young folks had a pretty german last Monday night at Hotel Lucerne.
Fourteen couples took part and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Strouse led. Music was furnished by Varalla's orchestra, and the dance did not break up until 1 a. m.

Oceola Lodge did not make the expected visit to Salem Monday night, as the Salem knights wished them to wait until the Masonic lodge room is furnished, which will not be for a week or so.

E. L. Kendall, of Paris, Fauquier county, is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. F.
McCormick, who continues quite ill.

Henry A. Forsythe, who has been under the weather for a few days, is able to be out again.

A. A. Willson, of Baltimore, was registered at Hotel Salem Monday night.

John F. Sanderson, of the freight depot, was too sick yesterday to be at work.

Darst Smith & Co. have recently shipped several car loads of flour and feed to Bluefield.

ART FOR THE FAIR.

The Constellation Arrives With Statuary and Paintings From the Old World.

FORTRESS MONROE, Va., Feb. 14.—The United States ship Constellation arrived at Hampton Roads yesterday, after an interesting cruise in the interests of the Columbian Exposition. The Constellation left Norfolk early in October for the purpose of transporting to the United States from France and Italy various works of art designed for the World's Fair. The voyage has been a successful one, both as to the excellent time made in the passage and as to the works collected. She sailed 12,800 miles in 94 days. The cargo taken at Naples consisted of marble statuary and paintings, principally the work of American artists in Italy, while that taken on board at Havre consisted of plaster casts of the statuary in the Trocadero, works of French artists and exhibits from the French colonies, the whole amounting to 600 tons bulk and taxing the ship to her utmost capacity.
The Constellation put into Hampton Roads owing to stress of weather, and will probably proceed in a few days to New York to discharge her cargo, after which she will again return to the Naval Academy for service at that institution.

Alexandria and Mt. Vernon Railway.
ALEXANDRIA, Va., Feb. 14.—The Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company has been adding considerable to its rolling stock and improving its tracks, making constant connections between the Washington ferry wharf or the Cameron street railroad depot and Mount Vernon. The managers of the company are sanguine that Congress will give them power to bridge the Potomac near the mouth of Rock creek, and make an all-rail electric line from Washington city to Washington Grove.

Nine Inches of Snow at Woodstock.
WOODSTOCK, W. Va., Feb. 14.—Nine inches of snow fell here yesterday and to-day. It commenced falling about 5 p. m. yesterday and fell without cessation until noon to-day. An unusual amount of sickness is prevalent in this place, especially among children.
Mumps and measles have made their appearance. Mayor Bauserman is on the list with a very severe case of the grip.

Crushed by a Fall of Coal.
PIEDMONT, W. Va., Feb. 14.—George Rowe, a miner in the Hampshire coal mines, was crushed by a fall of coal to-day. He will recover, but his left arm will have to be amputated.

Coming to an Understanding.

The young woman in the gay headdress had called in response to an advertisement.

"Yes, I want a good cook and general housemaid," said the woman of the house, "but six dollars a week seems pretty high."

"I never work for less, mem."

"What will you expect in the matter of afternoons out?"

"You can have two afternoons out during the week, mem," said the caller, stiffly.—Chicago Tribune.

Great Expectations.
The chief of police, who was dressed in civilian's clothes, saw how a cab driver insulted and abused people who refused to hire his vehicle. The chief, who refused, entered the cab and told the jehu to drive on.

"Where shall I drive you?" asked the cab driver.

"To police headquarters."

"And what will I get?"

"About ten days."—Texas Siftings.

A Tender Spouse.
Wife—Here comes a friend of mine.
Let's turn into this side street until she passes.

Husband—Quarrelled with her?

"No, but I don't want you to see her."

"Hum. Why not?"

"I know you'll admire that new dress of hers, and it will only worry you to think what a ridiculous fuss you made over the bills for this cheap thing I've got on."—N. Y. Weekly.

How Things Have Changed.
Tourist (from the north)—Uncle, can you get us up a real typical southern dinner?

Mr. Milledge—Bless yo' heart, suttin-ly, sah. Mammy, jes' tippicle a can 'ab dem Boston bake-beans, on ter de fish an' slice ob dat Sheecook dried beef. We sen's all our chickens an' haws an' hominy down t' Roanoke now, sah.—Judge.

More Gas Used.
Slimson—Heavens! look at this gas bill. It is more than double what it was last month. Clara, can you account for it?

Clara—I can, father. It was just a month ago that you forbade that lovely Mr. Spooner to call.—Judge.

Had Been Paid For.
Editor—You say you want a check for some jokes you left here two weeks ago? Why, those jokes have been paid for.

Mr. Chestnut—How long ago, sir?

"Oh, about fifty or a hundred years, I imagine."—Life.

Encouragement for the Timid.
"Lumph!" said a young gentleman at the theater to a young lady, "I could play the lover better than that myself."

"I should like to see you try," was her naive reply.—Boston Globe.

She Knew the Man.
The Parvenu—I enjoyed a performance of the opera "Faust" last night.

The Member of the Dabney Club—Oh, how I envy you. Goethe's music must be so much lovelier than his libretto.—Chicago News Record.

Hard on Sappy.
Barlow—Oldman Timberwheels wants to condemn Sappy to perpetual silence.
Taddles—How's that?

Barlow—I heard him tell Sappy he ought to think before he speaks.—
Truth.

Nothing Gained.
Jones—I don't believe Blivins spends half as much money as he did before he was married.

Smith—No; I know he don't; his wife spends it now.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Romance and Reality.
Clara—Aren't you afraid that after we are married we shall get tired of being together?

Charlie—But, dear, we shall be together so little.—Town Topics.

Undesirable.
They met beneath the mistletoe,
And yet no kiss was taken then.
The reason you would like to know?
It was because they both were men!
—Judge.

ELEGANCE AND FORCE.

Tom—She's a daisy, ain't she, Bill?

Bill—Daisy? Why, a daisy ain't no sukumstance to her. She's a whole bookey!—Life.

How They Grow.
Old Friend—Well, I declare, old boy, your wife is fully as tall as you are.

Mr. De Meek (in a whisper)—Yes, I guess that's so.

"How came you to marry such a big woman?"

"Well—er—she didn't seem so big before marriage."—N. Y. Weekly.

Clever Management.
"There goes a man who never has been known to disagree with his wife."

Dobson—How does he manage?

"Easy enough. She does all the talking."—Chicago Inter Ocean.

A Parting Injunction.
Young Callow—I expect to start for London and Paris to-morrow. Can I do anything for you?

Prunella—Yes; be sure not to miss your steamer.—Life.

A Diligent Pupil.
Teacher—I am glad to see you working so diligently at your writing lesson.

Little Boy—Yes; I want to get so I can write my own excuses.—Good News
